

Questions for IFB #251-25-280 – Opening Day Library Book Collection

Reference	Vendor Question	Answers
	Could you please send us the list of sample titles?	Library Media Services can release the list of sample titles after the IFB review process. The sample lists consist of 100 titles for each level (ES, MS, and HS) that are statistically representative of the ODC lists we custom create ourselves.
Scope of Work, page 3	What is the number of volumes we can expect to provide?	10,000-25,000 volumes
Scope of Work, page 3	Is there a minimum quantity of books we must provide for it to be considered a "collection"?	A selected vendor must be able to provide for our entire ODC, which consists of 10,000-25,000 volumes.
Scope of Work, page 3	If we publish new books within the initial three-year term, can these books be added to the collection?	We add new titles in subsequent orders during the purchasing period assigned to the individual school project. We purchase for an individual school ODC in a roughly 12- to 18-month period.
Scope of Work, page 3	Are you seeking adult professional learning books for your ODC, or are you only seeking books for students?	Our scope is inclusive of adult professional learning titles appropriate for our K12 educators.
Scope of Work, page 3	Is there a specific type of book you are seeking to have for your ODC?	We seek to access and order from the broadest catalog of titles appropriate for a PreK-12 audience of student learners and readers. We also include adult professional learning titles in our scope.
