Project Budget	$350,000
Project Description	One-Two Sentences This master planning study will further develop and articulate NC State's development plan for Centennial East, building upon the vision outlined in the University's 2023 Physical Master Plan. This plan will further define appropriate and desirable development patterns and densities, advance infrastructure concepts for utilities and streets, considering key factors such as connectivity to the western part of Centennial Campus, other campus precincts and the Dix Park adjacency, and address historic preservation and related matters. It will also create a phasing strategy with costs for infrastructure and will identify short- and medium-term projects for potential future development.
